EDMONTON TRANSIT RESUMES ADDITIONAL SERVICE

Two special University bus routes inaugurated during the 1971-72 University year will resume operation on Tuesday, September 5.

The U4 will operate every half hour during the University day, between the Jasper Place Bus Centre at 157 Street and Stony Plain Road and the campus. The route will follow 156 Street, calling at Meadowlark Shopping Centre, 87 Avenue, 149 Street, the Quesnell Freeway, Quesnell Bridge, Fox Drive, Belgravia Road, and 114 Street to the University. Buses bound for the University will leave Jasper Place Bus Centre at 16 and 46 past the hour in the morning, and 8 and 38 past the hour in the afternoon. Buses bound for Jasper Place Bus Centre will leave the University (from the north side of 89 Avenue, in front of the Civil-Electrical Engineering Building) at 13 and 43 past the hour in the morning, and 5 and 35 past the hour in the afternoon. Hours of operation will be from 6:16 a.m. to 6:05 p.m. Operation of the U4 saves students and staff living in the vicinity of Meadowlark almost an hour in travel time each way.

The U5 will operate every half hour during the University day between 118 Avenue and Groat Road, Westmount Shopping Centre, and the University. From 118 Avenue and Groat Road, the route follows Groat Road, 115 Avenue, 135 Street, 107 Avenue, Groat Road, Groat Bridge, and 87 Avenue into the campus.

Buses bound for the University will leave 118 Avenue and Groat Road at 3 and 33 past the hour. Buses bound for 118 Avenue and Groat Road will leave the University (from the north side of 89 Avenue, in front of the Civil-Electrical Engineering Building) at 10 and 40 past the hour. Hours of operation will be from 6:33 a.m. to 6:10 p.m.

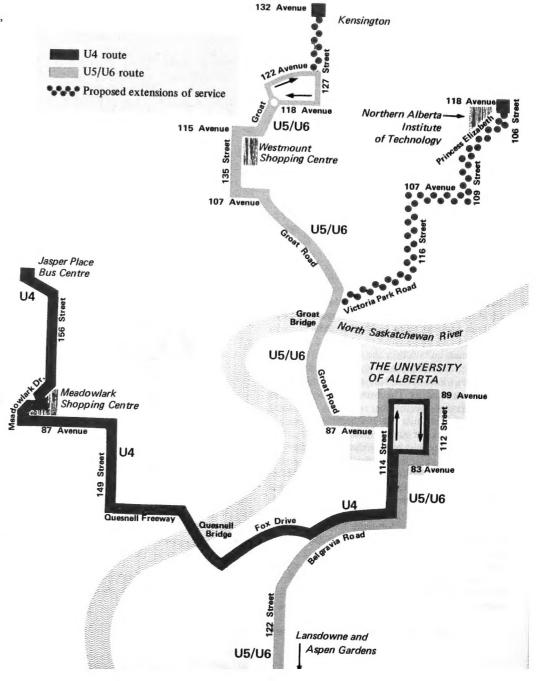

Edmonton Transit System currently is preparing for City Council a report concerning improved bus services north of 125 Avenue. Comment on the proposed changes would be appreciated by ETS. The report will recommend that the U5 be extended further north into the Kensington area, where it is proposed to connect with the N4 and N5. The report also will call for a completely new University bus service running between the University and NAIT by way of the Groat Bridge, Victoria Park Road, and 116 Street. This route would greatly improve bus service between the University and the Oliver hi-rise district along Jasper Avenue, cutting travel time to the University to 10 minutes by bus. The new route also would connect with the 1, 5, and 3 trolley routes.

Other University-related changes would include extension of the N12 from Steele Heights and Londonderry Shopping Centre through the downtown area to the University.

ETS has been receiving suggestions from residents in the northern part of the city regarding these proposed changes. Comments from the University community are invited and should be sent to: L. LAWRENCE or G. THOMPSON at the ETS Planning Office, 1922 Centennial Building.

VOLUME NINE, NUMBER NINE

The view of the living room in the four-bedroom suite (RIGHT) shows some of the furniture which can be rented for $11 per month per occupant. The Swedish-made furniture features a coffee table with linen storage unit underneath, a chesterfield, and one or two matching chairs in the living room. The dining area (BELOW) is equipped with a round table and cane chairs. Furnishings in the bedrooms include desk, chair, and captain's bed.

HUB WON'T MEET CONSTRUCTION DEADLINE

If HUB is to be home for this year's winter session students who were promised suites, the Students' Union is going to have a few orphans on its hands. Of the 450 suites in the Diamond-Myers plans, only 140 will be ready by September 1. The remaining 310 are expected to be completed at the rate of 100 suites per month. Those students who were promised suites but who cannot be accommodated in HUB when the term begins will be housed elsewhere, possibly in the St. Stephen's College residence across the street.

The Students' Union housing project will contain 112 four-man units, 100 two-man units, and 238 one-man units.

The four-man units are two-storey suites which can accommodate a maximum of six occupants. On the first floor of each unit there is a wide-open living and dining area, a kitchenette, a storage room, and two bedrooms. Upstairs are two more bedrooms and the bathroom.

Two-man units follow the same plan as the first floor of the four-man units, with the bathroom where the storage room would be in the larger suites. The two-bedroom units are limited to three occupants.

The smallest units are comparable to bachelor suites but can accommodate two people. They consist of a kitchenette, living and sleeping room, and bathroom.

Each suite which faces the mall has Dutch doors opening onto the mall. Supergraphics indicate the suite numbers and street addresses, and residents will be permitted to decorate their suites in whatever manner they wish. The management, however, has reserved the right to require that each suite be returned to its original state when the occupants move out.

Commercial facilities in HUB will include restaurants, clothing shops, and a bank, travel agency, laundromat, and barber shop.

CHILDREN'S CREATIVE DANCE THEATRE

Children's Creative Dance Theatre classes will be run from September 16 to November 25, 1972, in the Physical Education and Recreation Centre. These classes are an outgrowth and extension of the creative dance classes held in previous years. They will retain the emphasis on fostering each individual child's delight and creativity in movement, but will also gradually introduce the added dimension of creative dance as a performing art. It is anticipated that this will happen predominantly in the two senior classes, with appropriate consideration also being given to the junior classes. Parents will be welcome to discuss and participate in this new venture.

Schedules of the classes for different age groups with details of time, place, and fee; registration forms; and any further information required may be obtained from JOYCE BOORMAN, Department of Physical Education, 432-3567, or from CLIVE PADFIELD, Department of Educational Services, 432-5635.
